Hello Cheviot Enthusiasts,

It is shaping up to be a great year for those of us in the sheep industry. Lamb prices are at record highs. Cull ewe prices are at levels never seen before. The early breeding sheep and club lamb sales have been very strong. All of this in spite of high fuel, feed and fertilizer prices.

Are you prepared to take advantage of the current economic climate? What are the goals for your Cheviot flock? Whether you are in the business to produce sale and show sheep or to furnish lambs to the ethnic market or to sell market weight lambs you need to constantly evaluate where your flock is currently and where you want it to be headed in the future.

One of the great advantages of sheep and more specifically Cheviots is they can fill so many of the niche markets within our industry so very well. We have a very diverse industry from the small hobby farmer to the large commercial operation and a whole host of differences in between. I have had two people contact me recently wanting to know where they could find a few hundred head of Cheviot ewes for a commercial operation. Interest in the sheep industry is rebounding as we are seeing new memberships coming in for a cross section of breeds that we serve through Associated Registry.

Where do Cheviots and your flock fit into this potential growth cycle of the US sheep industry? Are you in a position to provide breeding stock to that new flock owner that is looking for a small flock of sheep? Why not Cheviots? Why not your Cheviots? I challenge each of you to help at least one new person to get started with a Cheviot flock in 2022. Seize the moment and let’s grow our breed in 2022 and the years beyond!

Greetings to all fellow Cheviot Breeders,

Another lambing season is coming to a close for most of us. I hope it went well for all of you. As spring appears to be coming in Wisconsin, we will close in on summer before we know it. One of the big topics for us this year is the change in location and venue for our national sale. For those who were unaware, The Illinois State Fairgrounds in Springfield was booked for the week we intended to have the national sale. This was due to changes that happened with another group because of Covid. After much coordination with the Oxford board of directors, it was determined that our best option was to use the facilities in Joliet, Illinois and keep it the same weekend we planned. We think this will be a nice facility and hope that it will work well for our national sales.

We will again offer Tunis and Montadale breeders the opportunity to consign with their respective breeds at this year’s sale in conjunction with the National Cheviot and National Oxford Sales. Please spread the word and encourage consignors in those breeds to attend as it will make the entire event stronger. We have been told that the sale will be able to get back to the Springfield location after this year.

If you have not attended our national sale before or if it has been several years since you’ve been there, I would highly recommend you join us in Joliet June 10-11. It is a great opportunity to meet other sheep breeders, exchange ideas, and stay up-to-date on successful breeding programs. The last couple of years have been challenging because of the battle with Covid and its restrictions. However, we expect a great crowd and good numbers at this year’s sale.

I just returned home from the Ohio Dorset Sale. Numbers, quality, crowd size, and enthusiasm were all high. Not surprisingly, prices were also very strong. Typically that sale sets the pace for the rest of the sheep sales throughout the summer. So get your entries in early, select your top stock for consignment, and plan to find your next breed building pieces at the sale. Let’s make this one of the greatest sales in our breeds history. Best wishes to you all and I look forward to seeing you this summer!

Respectfully,

Dan Spilde

The American Cheviot Sheep Society emails a periodic newsletter about events and Cheviot happenings. If you would like to be included on this email list please notify the association office at ebertsheepfarm@gmail.com. This will allow the information to get to you, the members, much quicker. Also, if you have corrections to your address or phone number or want to add your cell phone to your breeder listing, please notify the office of that as well. The mailing list is an ever changing list so please do all you can to keep the Association office of any changes in your contact information.

The association is always looking for good farm scene pictures of Cheviots, so if you get a chance take some pictures and send them by email or disk to the association office. Your help in these matters is much appreciated.
Fully recognizing the importance to all interests in the culture of Cheviot Sheep and of having a reliable record which shall be accepted as the “Final Authority” in question of pedigree and desiring to unite the experience and interest of all in guarding and perpetuating the purity of their flocks, we unite in organizing this Society.

The modern Cheviot breed has been produced by selection rather than by crossing. It is a pure breed, one of a very few in this country. Because of this purity, when the Cheviot ram is mated with crossbred ewes of other breeds, he stamps an unmistakable Cheviotness on his offspring, importing to them a large measure of the superiority of which Cheviots are known.

Distinctive Appearance

The modern American Cheviot is primarily a mutton sheep. As sheep weights go, it is definitely one of the smaller breeds but one of the most distinctive in appearance. Much of its distinctive appearance is due to the high carriage of the head and the quick, coordinated stride. The head is carried high, and the ears are carried together, erect and forward. There is no wool on the head or face in front of the ears, nor is there wool below the knees and the hocks. The head, legs, and ears are covered with very fine white hair. Their bare heads, attractive white color and absence of horns give them a very aristocratic bearing. Nostrils and hooves should be black in color. Rams in good condition mature at 160 to 200 lbs., ewes from 130 to 170 lbs.

Extreme Hardiness

The breed is also recommended for its extreme hardiness. This is one of the breed's strongest characteristics. For generations raised on the Cheviot Hills, rarely seeing the inside of a shed or barn, summer or winter, Cheviots have, from force of circumstances, developed into the hardest of the medium-wool breeds. The newborn lambs are strong, vigorous and alert and are born with a will to live. Their unusual vitality and hardiness makes them easy to raise, and with reasonable care, losses are insignificant.

Production Plus

Cheviot ewes are a delight for the shepherd. They bear their lambs easily, have a high number of twins, and produce plenty of milk to support them. Production records, year after year, show that their twins grow as fast as single lambs. Both the lambs and their mothers are good foragers and thrifty efficient feeders. Their grazing pattern is unlike that of other sheep. Instead of grouping together in a frontal assault on a single area, they tend to spread out over an area and get all the available feed. As rustlers, they have few equals. If there is vegetation to be found—above or beneath the snows—browse, grass, heather, or weed—they will find it.

Desirable Carcasses

The modern Cheviot has a compact body with a straight smooth back with covers a rack of well-filled, meaty chops and a broad loin of superior quality. The leg is full, round and plump. One of the outstanding merits of these choice cuts, the Cheviot has a reputation as a meat producer. These plump, meaty cuts, their pink flesh delicately trimmed with just enough fat to make them juicy and tender, are the housewife's choice because with them she can serve her family a tasty meal with minimum waste. Because they are housewife's choice, Cheviots are the choice of the butcher, and therefore bring a better price at the market. The Cheviot is prized by the meat packers for the very practical reason that the packer gets more pounds of lamb which he buys "on the hoof;" Cheviot rams are excellent sires in crossbred market lamb production programs. Ewes built to deliver larger-headed lambs find the Cheviot-sired lambs, with their small heads, very easy to deliver, so that much less attention is required at lambing time. These lambs are so vigorous, strong, and hardy at birth that losses are kept at a minimum, and a higher percentage of the lambs are raised to marketing age. Successful producers of commercial lambs know their success depends upon their ability to produce the kind of lamb carcasses which the market demands, at the lowest labor and feed cost. Cheviot ram aid these commercial producers in producing the type of lambs desired by the market.

Fine Fleeces

Cheviots produce generous fleeces of white wool which is preferred by mills because its fineness, crimp, and length of staple give it superior spinning and combing qualities, and its low grease content causes less shrinkage in scouring. The fleece is usually grades 1/4 to 3/8 blood combing and is usually from four to five inches in length. Rams will normally shear 9 to 13 lbs., and the ewe will produce fleeces of 8 to 10 lbs.

All Things Considered

Though Cheviots may come in smaller packages, they contain for the sheepman a surprising combination of highly desirable qualities. They are noted for hardiness, longevity, productiveness, milking, and mothering ability and for their great activity. They are high in quality and hang a presentable carcass that has a minimum of outside fat for the amount of carcass lean produced. They utilize rough, low producing hill country very profitably with relatively little assistance from man and even less from the elements. Where there is a really tough clean-up job to be done to convert waste land into dollars, more and more sheepmen are discovering that “Cheviots can take it.” In comparing Cheviots with other breeds, let the comparison be made on a basis of pounds of dressed lamb and clean wool produced per acre, and consider all of the costs of this production, including the year-round cost of feeding the ewe, and the time and attention required at lambing and shearing time.
Border Cheviots are a small-framed breed of sheep known for their vigor, mother ability, muscle and ease of fleshing. Along with their size, the head is another unique characteristic of the Border Cheviot.

I. GENERAL APPEARANCE
25 POINTS
A. APPEARANCE: Alert, active stylish and symmetrical, standing on moderate leg length. The overall body exhibits balance.

B. SIZE: The preferred Cheviot is proportional in height and length equal to or exceeding the height of the animal. The average Cheviot ram should weight approximately 200 pounds at maturity. The average Cheviot ewe should weigh approximately 150 pounds at maturity.

II. BREED TYPE
25 POINTS
The beauty of the Cheviot head is one of the breed’s distinguishing features. The Cheviot style, alertness and contrasting colors set the breed apart from others.

A. HEAD: Medium in length and broad, with ample width between the eyes. Straight with little arch between the eyes and nostrils; more strongly arched in rams.
   1. EARS: Medium in length, sharply erect, of medium thickness, and placed on top of the head. The circumference of the ears should form a curved appearance, rather than flat and open. From a side view, the ears should be pointed slightly forward.
   2. EYES: Large, round, clear and alert, with black pigmentation around the rim of the eye.
   3. NOSE: Broad muzzled, with large nostrils forming a black “T” at the end of the nose.
   4. MOUTH: Black lipped with a strong deep jaw.
B. HAIR COVERING: Head, ears, and legs well covered with fine, short, white hair. Black spots are acceptable on the ears and poll. Black spots on any other part of the body are objectionable. Brown hair on any part of the body is HIGHLY objectionable.
C. HOOVES: Black in color.

III. STRUCTURE
25 POINTS
Soundness is imperative in useful Cheviot sheep. Incorrectness decreases the animal’s movement, growth, reproductive rate, longevity, usefulness and ultimate value. Additionally, structure and soundness are highly inheritable traits. Cheviots should stand on large circumference of bone with adequate size to the foot. Structural soundness relates to the skeleton. Incorrectness in one part of the skeleton usually is connected to incorrectness in other parts of the skeleton. For example, usually post-legged animals are also too straight in their should angle.

AREAS OF STRUCTURAL CORRECTNESS
FOREQUARTERS: Shoulder blades should be set in uniformly and smoothly to the rest of the body.
BACK: The back of Cheviot sheep should be straight as possible from the top of the shoulder to the dock. A slightly elevated shoulder in comparison to the hip is acceptable. Additionally, slight slope of the hip from the hook to the pin bones is acceptable.
FRONT FEET: Front View: Both feet should point forward and be perpendicular to the body with straightness from the chest floor to the toe.
SIDE VIEW: Feet should be straight from the chest floor through the knee to the pastern. The angle of the pastern should be approximately 45 degrees. Less of an angle allows for weak pasterns and more of an angle allows for extreme straightness.
REAR FEET: Side View: The back of the rear leg should be perpendicular to the pin bones of the hip. Less angle allows for post-legged individuals. More angle causes sheep to be sickle-hocked.
REAR VIEW: Legs should be square and perpendicular to the corners of the body with equal distance between legs at the hock and the toe.
MOVEMENT: Animals should maintain the proper correctness to the skeleton both while standing and moving. Many times structural defects are not evident until the animal moves about. It is then important to assess structural correctness both while the Cheviot is standing and moving.

For the beginner and veteran breeder alike, an excellent article on feet and leg soundness in sheep is “Feet and Legs” (North Central Regional Extension Publication #301) by Drs. Harold Henneman and Margaret Benson of Michigan State University.

IV. BODY
25 POINTS
A. NECK: Moderately long, trim, and exhibiting extension, blending smoothly into shoulders, and contributing to an overall balanced appearance.
B. SHOULDERS: Smoothly laid in from neck to back. Tight at top of the shoulder, also smooth at the point of the shoulder.

C. CHEST, BRISKET, AND HEART GIRTH: Chest deep and moderately wide, but trim, with adequate capacity, and fitting smoothly into neck and shoulders. Brisket also trim. Heart girth full, broad and deep to promote longevity.

D. BACK (TOPLINE): Long and level, no weakness in front or behind the shoulder.

E. RIBS: Deep and well sprung with adequate cover. Essential for vigor and ease of fleshing.

F. LOIN: Long, wide, deep, and well covered.

G. HINDQUARTERS: Hip broader than shoulders. Rump wide, long and level out to the dock. Leg heavily muscled.

H. UNDERLINE: Level and as parallel to the topline as possible. Flanks deep and full.

I. FLEECE: Chalky white in color, uniform crimp with blunt ends; staple is definite. Covers the body completely from behind the poll and ears to slightly above the knees and hocks, including the belly.

   Wool Grade:
   3/8 to 1/4 blood combing
   (58s to 48s or 27 to 33 microns)

Weight of fleece:
   Rams: 8 to 14 pounds
   Ewes: 6 to 10 pounds

Fleece Characteristics can be highly objectionable but not disqualifying:
   A. Black, brown or grey spots in the fleece
   B. Hairy britch
   C. Kemp throughout the fleece
   D. Shiny fleece

IMPLEMENTING NEW BREED STANDARDS
The new Cheviot Standards of Excellence were adopted at the 2004 annual meeting of the American Cheviot Sheep Society. The new Breed Standards are the result of more than two years of work by a committee formed in 2002. Through the process of updating the Cheviot Breed Standards, members presented many thoughts and proposals. These thoughts were debated until the final draft was approved by a vote of the members in November 2004. While probably not perfect, these Standards represent a significant step forward in the preservation of both the desirable carcass and the beautiful and distinctive Cheviot appearance. Now the important task of applying these Standards is up to all Cheviot breeders. Taking time to explain and demonstrate the preferred Cheviot characteristics to young 4-Hers and others who desire to be Cheviot breeders is critical.

Another important task in assuring that these Standards are followed is to choose judges for national Cheviot competitions who will apply them in the show ring. To help the Board of Directors evaluate how an individual judge applies the breed Standards of Excellence, we as you to fill out the critique form found on the back page of the Cheviot Journal. If you need extra copies of the critique form, please contact the ACSS office. It is very important for each member to do this so we can establish a judge’s review to assist in the selection of judges for national shows who follow the Breed Standards.

The American Cheviot Sheep Society has taken a large step forward in guarding and maintaining the quality of our Cheviot breed. It is now up to each one of us to complete this task. Please fill out a judge critique form for each show you attend and follow the instructions for submitting the form. If you would like extra copies of the Cheviot Breed Standards of Excellence to share with judges in your area, please contact the ACSS office.

ALB Releases Annual Report

“It’s been three years since our rebranding, and the American Lamb Checkoff lit a fire with consumers this past year,” said 2021 American Lamb Board Past Chair Gwendolyn Kitzan in the board’s just released Fiscal Year 2021 Annual Report. “What could have been months of downturn for our industry has sparked some of the best sales increases we’ve seen.”

The 2021 American Lamb Board Annual Report is available at LambResourceCenter.com.

In 2021 – as in 2020 – ALB responded to the changes brought about in the American sheep industry by the COVID-19 pandemic and other situations with strategic action, seizing new opportunities to expand lamb’s place in the U.S. diet and economy. In Fiscal Year 2021 – Oct. 1, 2020 to Sept. 30, 2021 – ALB had a total budget of $1.6 million, allocated as follows: $995,040 for promotion, $236,365 for communications, $106,098 for research, $132,640 for U.S. Department of Agriculture oversight and $132,009 for administration.

Promotions continued to be a primary part of ALB’s work during the past year. As confined consumers turned to their outside grills, so did ALB. Its Food Blogger Network was expanded to include outdoor cooking experts for a total of 24 paid partnerships with a social media reach of 6.9 million, who contributed 34 new American lamb recipes with photos and videos. Total media reach hit 20 billion impressions and 4,400 lamb articles. Consumer media gave considerable coverage to the ALB Outdoor Cooking Poll, which kicked off a series of seasonal social media promotions. ALB’s new take on Lamb Lover’s Month and holiday cooking rounded out seasonal promotions.

Virtual events also hit the spot to take the place of traditional face-to-face activities. Outdoor cooking workshops, an American Culinary Federation butchery demo and Homemade Consumer Cooking Classes were immensely popular. Taziki’s Mediterranean Café added a heavily promoted American Lamb Burger to its menu, and Lebanese Taverna rolled out a holiday takeout pack at its Washington, D.C.-area restaurants.

In 2021, ALB partnered with Premier 1 Supplies to sponsor a video series on lamb quality for sheep producers. Produced by the North Dakota State University Extension Service, the series is available at LambResourceCenter.com. ALB also provided promotional tools to help the industry reach consumers with American lamb’s message and assisted local lamb groups in reaching out through its Lamb Promotional Partnership Program. And ALB made plans to sponsor the American Lamb Summit, scheduled for Aug. 8-11.

Providing the latest information requires an investment in research. ALB is in the midst of a multi-phase flavor profiling project with Texas Tech and Colorado State universities. Phase III found Rapid Evaporative Ionization Mass Spectrometry is accurate in predicting flavor attributes that correlate with consumer sensory panel testing. The knowledge will enable classifying lamb into flavor profiles to market lamb more successfully to consumers with differing preferences.

Meanwhile, a new multi-year study at Michigan State University is identifying lamb’s environmental footprint to provide accurate data and opportunities for industry improvements.

Cheviot Ewe Futurity
The American Cheviot Sheep Society will again sponsor the Cheviot Futurity open to all Junior Exhibitors. A “Junior Exhibitor” is defined as an exhibitor who is not older than 21 on the date of the Junior Cheviot Show at NAILE. There is no lower age limit, but the Junior must be physically capable of showing their own sheep (exception made for physical or other handicap). Each Junior may purchase more than one animal, but only one animal placing in the top eight will be awarded to the top placings.

Consignors will nominate animals at specified sales and only these animals will be eligible for the Futurity. All animals must be purchased at a designated sale. Most consignment and private online sales offer Futurity nominated animals.

Consignor Rules:
1. Entries include Spring Ewe Lambs born Jan. 1, 2022 or later and Fall Ewe Lambs born Sept. 1, 2021. Yearling Ewes that were previously nominated in 2021 as lambs can be re-nominated by the Juniors for $25.
2. Nominating fee of $25 is payable to the American Cheviot Sheep Society. Animals must be nominated and designated prior to entering the show ring of a designated sale. Futurity animals must be sold at the auction of a designated sale and not be pre-sold.
3. Animals must have Scrapie Identification in their ear prior to being sold.

Exhibitor Rules:
1. Age limitations for Junior Exhibitors: to be eligible to compete in the Futurity, an exhibitor must not be over 21 years of age on the date of the Junior Cheviot Show at NAILE.
2. Junior Members must be physically able to show their Futurity animal to qualify for points at each show (exception made for physical or other handicap). If an exhibitor has more than one Futurity animal in a class, the owning junior must show one and another exhibitor must show the second animal.
3. Futurity animals are to be registered in the individual Juniors name only. No partnerships, farm, family, 4-H Club or FFA Chapter names are acceptable.
4. Animals and points earned in the Futurity are not transferable to any other person; nor are the points transferable from one animal to another.
5. Any Futurity entrant may compete with as many animals as desired, but will receive a premium for the one animal with the highest point total, in each division.
6. Animals must be shown in proper age classes.
7. Premium: The American Cheviot Sheep Society has donated $800 to start the Futurity Premium. A percentage of this money will be awarded to each division based on the number of animals nominated. The nominating fee will stay within the designated division of the Futurity. Division 1 – Spring Ewe Lambs, Division 2 – Fall Ewe Lambs, Division 3 – Yearling Ewes.
8. The top eight places will be paid in each division.
9. A point card must be filled out for each show and forwarded to the American Cheviot Sheep Society office by November 1, 2022. The card must be signed by the Superintendent of the show certifying that the Junior exhibited the animal, class size and the placing of the animal.
10. For points-earned purposes, all shows are considered equal; i.e. AOB, Junior, Open, State and County receive equal point value in figuring points. Only the Junior Show at NAILE will be included.
11. Futurity animals may compete at any number of shows, but only the top five point-award shows will be included in determining awards.
12. Futurity Awards will be announced at NAILE.
13. The sliding scale shown in the chart indicates how points will be determined.
ACSS Futurity Program

What is it?
A point system for youth to participate in and receive monetary prizes from the American Cheviot Sheep Society

- Over $1,200 is awarded annually
- Ewe lambs entered into the futurity must be purchased from a Cheviot Breeder
- Lambs nominated for futurity may receive points at any show, including both open and junior divisions
- A point sheet must be filled out for every show and be turned in by Nov 1 of the current year.
- Point forms can be found on www.cheviots.org

The program provides incentive to youth to show their lambs, as well as, recognition to producers for raising high quality lambs

How do I nominate a ewe lamb for futurity?
- $25 entry fee per lamb
- Must fill out nomination form found at www.cheviots.org
- Lambs can be nominated through online sales and any public auction managed by Heartland Group, Banner Sale Mgmt., or any other recognized sale management
- Yearling Ewes can be re-nominated by the Junior. Must be done by June 1st of the current year

Who can participate in the ACSS Futurity?
- Any junior who is under 21 years of age and has paid the current year’s membership dues ($10)
- The nominated lamb must be in the junior’s name as of Sept 1 of the current year
- Only one junior can submit points forms for a specific sheep
- One junior can have multiple lambs in the futurity; however, the junior will only receive premiums for one lamb per category

    How has the sheep industry, more specifically Cheviots, taught you responsibility in all aspects of your life?

How has the sheep industry, more specifically Cheviots, taught you responsibility in all aspects of your life?

My involvement in the sheep industry has taught me what it means to have responsibilities that need to be taken care of every day. No matter what I choose to do with my life, I am going to have things that need to be done on a daily basis and through raising and showing sheep, I have learned what it is like to have chores that need to be done every single day. I have to feed and care for my sheep every morning and night, no matter the weather or other plans I have going on.

This has taught me how to be able to manage my time with my different involvements to ensure I have time to complete everything to my best ability. Cheviots, as we all know, can be a very energetic and high-strung breed that requires a lot of patience. My times with Cheviots has taught me how to keep my cool and how to avoid getting frustrated when things don’t always go right. Life is going to be full of ups and downs and I believe that my time within the sheep industry has been prepared me to know how to handle any obstacle life may throw at me.

During lambing season, not every delivery goes exactly quick on my feet and how to find different solutions for the problems I face. I believe that by raising and showing Cheviots, I have been prepared with many different life skills that I am going to be able to use on daily basis in my future life to make me a more responsible and hardworking person.
